(6) Right of the Constitutional Remedies :- Since, Fundamental Rights are justiciable, they are just like guarantees. They are enforceable, as every individual has the right to seek the help from courts, if they are violated. But in reality it is not so. Encroachment or violation of Fundamental Right in our day to day life is a matter of great concern.

(7). Right to Education (RTE)

⇒ Emergency due to failure of Constitutional Machinery in a state :- It is duty of UNION Govt. to ensure that Governance of a state is carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution. Under Article 356, the President may issue a proclamation to impose emergency in a state if he is satisfied on receipt of a report from the Governor of the state, or otherwise, that a situation has arisen under which the Government of state cannot be carried on smoothly. In such a situation proclamation of emergency by the president is called "proclamation on account of the failure of constitutional machinery." In popular language it is called the president's rule.

- A National Emergency is already in operation
- The Election Commission certifies that the election to the State Assembly cannot be held.

Financial Emergency :- The third type of emergency is financial emergency provided under Article 360. It provides that if the president satisfies that the financial stability or credit of India or any of part is in danger.

(q). Effect of Financial Emergency :- The proclamation of financial may have following consequences :-

- (i) The UNION GOVERNMENT may give direction to any of the states regarding financial matters.
